

Greetings to all
Indian Veterinary Association Kerala
Welcomes you to

10th Kerala Veterinary Science Congress

INDIAN VETERINARY ASSOCIATION KERALA

Indian Veterinary Association (IVA), Kerala, member of World Veterinary Association and Commonwealth Veterinary Association is the largest professional organization of the veterinarians of Kerala with more than 2000 members from all walks of veterinary profession. Being a professional body pledged to uphold and improve the professional efficiency, competence, dignity, honour, interest and rights of veterinary profession, IVA Kerala has always been a forerunner in organizing events of technical importance in the field of veterinary education, research, practice and Kerala Veterinary Science Congress is one such venture.

KERALA VETERINARY SCIENCE CONGRESS

The Kerala Veterinary Science Congress (KVSC) is a coveted annual scientific meet organized by Indian Veterinary Association, Kerala, since 2009. The objective of this two-day event, during the month of November every year, is to revitalize the Research & Development sector of Veterinary Sciences, Animal Husbandry and Wildlife studies and to identify solutions for the emerging challenges in health care management, production & welfare of livestock, wildlife and the adaptive refinement of One Health initiatives in Public health. The Kerala Veterinary Science Congress is organized by Indian Veterinary Association Kerala in association with Animal Husbandry Department, Kerala. The 2018 episode of Kerala Veterinary Science Congress (KVSC-2018) will also be an international edition staging an effective platform for interaction among academicians, researchers, practising veterinarians, wildlife experts and policy makers from all across the globe.

The 10th Kerala Veterinary Science Congress will be held at Kairali Heritage, Kattampally, Kannur District, Kerala on 10th and 11th of November 2018. Kannur is a coastal city in the south Indian state of Kerala. The district is bound by the western ghats in the east, Kozhikode and Wayanad Districts in the south, Arabian sea in the west and Kasaragod District in the north. It is a land with resonant past with myths and legends abound. Kannur is often known as The crown of Kerala and popularly known as The city of Looms and Lores. The region is famous for its loom industries and dazzling ritual performance called Theyyam. The land is a lively melange of beautiful beaches, historic sites, interesting folk arts and folk music, rituals, religious practices and festivities. The district also is home to some of the traditional industrial sectors of Kerala. The region also has its place in the freedom struggle against the British.

The tourism potential for Kannur district is high. The St. Angelos Fort in the Kannur Cantonment, which was constructed in 1505, is a symbol of Portuguese architecture. The Thalassery Fort is an important tourist centre. Pappinissery beach, Muzhappilangad drive in beach (The longest in Asia), Paithalmala, Parassinikkadavu and Ezhimala are known for scenic beauty. Places of historic importance, like the house of Gundert, who composed the first Malayalam- English Dictionary, Arakkal Palace which is the only royal Muslim family in Kerala attract many tourists.

Travel Guide

The nearest airport to Kannur is the Calicut International Airport, Kozhikode, located at a distance of about 115 kms and the Mangalore International airport located at a distance of about 150 kms. Kannur is well connected by rail and road to most of the Indian cities. The venue Kairali Heritage, Kattampally is a luxurious resort situated against the backdrop of wonderful Kattampally River, in Kannur, located about 9 Kms from Kannur Railway Station. The resort is surrounded by magnificent water bodies that create a spectacular ambience characterised with the serene natural environment.
